

Merzell Sourcing Service (MSS)

MSS - makes the procurement process better, easier and safer!

Merzell Sourcing Service (MSS) is an electronic purchasing tool, which focused on the procurement of inquiries. MSS is easy to use for both purchaser and supplier and the only requirement is access to internet as well as an e-mail account

Why use MSS?

- A more efficient tendering process, requiring less administration
- Ensures equal treatment of all your suppliers
- A quality-assured and more professional procurement function
- Easy of access to supplier information
- Comprehensive support from Merzell: we assist both you and your suppliers
- Easy sharing of information; everything is automatically logged
- Better prices from suppliers who know they are in competition
- Access to over 13,000 competitive suppliers in Northern Europe, in addition to the suppliers you normally send enquiries to.
- Generates both time saving and financial savings.

Do you want a demonstration of any of our product, please don't hesitate to contacting us!
Merzell customer service can be reached on telephone +47 21 01 88 00, or e- mail post@merzell.com

Merzell is Northern Europe's leading meeting place for buyers and suppliers. Suppliers in all industries find the contracts they are looking for, where companies in both the private and public sectors. Our buyers' contracts are the object of competition between the market's best suppliers, and we make it easy for buyers to come into contact with these suppliers.

Merzell